WARNING WILL BE GIVEN TO BOERS

As to What They May Expect in the Event of the Destruction of British Property in City Johannesburg.

London, March 20.—In the house of commons the parliamentary secretary of the war office, George Wyndham, said the secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, was about to issue a proclamation on the subject of the alleged threats of the Boers to destroy Johannesburg, and as to what the Boers may expect in the event of wanton destruction of British property.

London, March 20.—For all the news that reached here Great Britain might almost as well be at peace. It is reasonable to believe that the relief of Mafeking may be heard of at any hour.

General Kitchener has entered Prieska, Cape Colony, without opposition, the insurgents laying down their arms, which merely confirms the previous reports of their willingness to submit.

Generals Roberts and Buller are still inactive, pending developments at the theater of war.

Considerable interest is attached to the fate of Johannesburg. Commenting on the reported consultation between Secretary Hay and the German ambassador at Washington, Dr. Von Holleben, as to a proposition that both belligerents be urged to leave Johannesburg alone, the Pall Mall Gazette says:

"This time Dr. Leyds has, as we may without impropriety assume, put in circulation the tale to the effect that the German ambassador at Washington, and the American consul at Pretoria, are concocting a little scheme of German intervention. That is really a glorious yarn, and one which shows to what desperate straits the enemies of this country are reduced. Just imagine a government which has formally declined all outside intervention permitting Germany to dictate the course of Lord Roberts' March to Pretoria. The German foreign office knows better than to invite the snub it would infallibly receive if it ventured to whisper so preposterous a proposal in Downing street."

Message From Roberts.

London, March 20.—Lord Roberts has notified the war office of a reply he received from the presidents of the South African republics, in which they deny the fact that the Boers fired on the white flag. Roberts' message shows the presidents claim that the British fired on parties of Boers who had British prisoners, and some of the latter were wounded. Quoting further from the communication of the presidents, Roberts' message says:

"With reference to the explosive bullets found in Cronje's laager and elsewhere, I can give your excellency assurance that such bullets were not purchased or allowed by the government. I, however, have no reason to doubt your statement, as I know many of the burghers of this state and of the South African republic took a large number of Lee-Metford rifles and dum-dum and other bullets from British troops.

"May I request your excellency, as the cable is closed to me, to make my reply known to your government, and the neutral powers by cable."

The dispatch from Lord Roberts concludes as follows:

"As the inquiry into that matter proves his honors' allegations to be unfounded, and, as I personally saw the holding up of hands, which he denies, I have not thought it desirable to continue the correspondence."

Railroad Bridges Blown Up.

Cape Town, March 20.—The Boers have blown up the bridge north of Bloemfontein, including those at Winberg and Kroonstad, and are retreating to the north.

Law Courts Reopened.

Bloemfontein, March 20.—The Boers blew up the railroad bridge over the Modder river, 14 miles north. The law courts were reopened.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 20.—The annual convention of District No. 11, United Mine Workers of America, comprising the bituminous miners of Indiana and a portion of Kentucky, opened here and will probably be in session three days. There is a misunderstanding in regard to the purchase of powder used in the mines, and this question will be discussed at the convention. The weekly pay law will also be considered. Mr. Vanhorn will probably be re-elected president. On Thursday, March 22, the miners will hold a joint conference with the operators.

MISS GOEBEL

Testifies About Her Relations With James B. Kellogg Amid Sobs.

New York, March 20.—When the trial of James B. Kellogg, indicted for grand larceny and conspiracy in connection with the E. S. Dean company, was resumed before Recorder Goff, Miss Emily Goebel was the first witness called. Miss Goebel was much agitated, and her replies to questions were made in a voice interrupted by sobs. Miss Goebel told of Kellogg having said to her that he was employed by Mrs. L. S. Dean.

"I heard Kellogg say once," she asserted, "that he was very much worried about the business, and that he had been doing certain things, and if the authorities learned of them, the only country he could go to was Brazil, from whence he could not be extradited."

Later in February Miss Goebel said she went to his office again, and Kellogg told her he did not want her seen about the office, that things were going to smash and she ought to stay away.

She told of going to Europe at Kellogg's solicitation, and returning in September, 1897. After her return from Europe, Miss Goebel said: "We quarreled. He told me he was going to the penitentiary sure, and I told him it was a better place than he tried to put me. He said to me: 'I've got that money, and I've got it planted good and plenty. I'll do time before I'll give it up. I'll go to the penitentiary for a year, then I'll get out.'"

In reply to questions, Miss Goebel said that she lived with Kellogg as his wife. When asked if she was married, she said she did not know. She once had a husband named Goebel, but did not know whether or not he was dead, and said there had been no divorce. She testified that she had been married to James B. Brummell, but was divorced in Omaha.

Why the Price Jumped.

New York, March 20.—Much excitement attended the early dealings on the stock exchange. The occasion was the announcement that the Metropolitan Street railway had obtained control of Third Avenue. This was appalling news to many speculators, who, counting upon an indefinite decline in Third Avenue stock, sold it short with such a reckless disregard of the symptoms that the floating supply of the stock was being diminished and a corner being formed. The news that the Metropolitan Street railway had acquired this stock and the improved status given to the property caused a wild scene at the Third Avenue post at the opening, which was "wide." Simultaneously sales were made all the way from 90 to 100, compared with 66 to 85 on the previous day.

Shot by Mrs. Smith.

Chicago, March 20.—Three hours after the shooting of Miss Anule Strother, cashier of a restaurant, Mrs. Charles Smith, 23, wife of a saloon-keeper, with whom Miss Strother is said to have associated, was arrested and made a confession, saying she had shot Miss Strother because the latter had taken her husband's love. Mrs. Smith talked freely of the affair, and claimed she was justified in killing Miss Strother. Afterward her confession was written out and Mrs. Smith signed it. With her at the police station are her husband and her 6-year-old daughter Elsie.

Entertained in Spain.

Madrid, March 20.—The visit of the Argentine warship Presidente Sarmiento to Spanish ports is giving rise to repeated Hispano-American demonstrations. The Presidente Sarmiento is now at Barcelona, where a bull fight and a municipal banquet have been given in his honor and toasts expressing mutual sympathy were drunk. The crew of the Presidente Sarmiento has been invited to Madrid, where a series of fetes has been organized.

Arkansas Republicans.

Little Rock, March 20.—The Republican state convention met here with about 400 delegates in attendance. The convention will nominate delegates to the Philadelphia gathering, and will then adjourn until July 4, when nominations for state officers will be made. The delegates to the national convention will be Judge John McClure, C. N. Rix, S. A. Duke and Fred Hovis. Powell Clayton is here, but will not be a delegate.

Mr. Sibley Is Sick.

Franklin, Pa., March 20.—Congressman Joseph Sibley is confined to his bed with lagrippe. He came home last Saturday to spend a few days with his family, and was attacked shortly after his arrival. His condition is not regarded as serious.

Peasants Drowned.

Budapest, March 20.—Twenty-four peasants were drowned by the capsizing of a boat in which they were crossing the Danube river from Kaloosa to Paks, during a gale.

WITH THE STATESMEN

Two Oleomargarine Measures Are Launched in the Senate.

APPROPRIATIONS IN THE HOUSE.

The Lower Branch Passes the Bill, Providing For the State's Expenditures After Voting Down Amendments.

Columbus, O., March 20.—When Senator Cohen entered the senate chamber he found all the Democratic members of the house awaiting him to congratulate him upon his nomination as the Democratic fusion candidate for mayor of Cincinnati. The senator's desk was covered with flowers, the gift of admiring friends. He said that the law did not require his resignation, and he did not intend to do so.

Senator Roubidoux introduced two important bills dealing with the manufacture of oleomargarine. One places an excise tax of 5 per cent upon their gross receipts, and the other revises the property tax laws so far as they apply to the plant of such concerns.

Senator Wirt introduced a bill, which has been prepared by Attorney General Sheets at the request of State Mine Inspector Hazeltine, to make the law requiring abandoned gas and oil well to be plugged in the presence of the state mine inspector.

Senator Harbaugh introduced another physical culture bill.

Senator Howard's bill to prevent the stealing of operative and dramatic productions passed the senate.

Senator Nippert's bill to increase the state's peremptory challenge in murder cases to 10 was reported back with the 10 changed to eight and, so amended, recommended for passage.

Senator Middleton claimed the floor when the minutes of the senate were read, and read a privileged statement regarding his vote on the Clark local option bill. He had no criticism to make on the newspaper men, but was incensed at Senator Marchant, who was quoted as saying that Middleton had gone back on his word. He denied that he had ever said to anyone that he would vote for the bill.

Senator Sheppard's 10 bills to change the decennial realty appraisalment to quinquennial and the members of the state equalization board from 31 to 21, were overwhelmingly defeated in the senate for the second time, the vote being 8 yeas to 17 nays.

In the House.

Without the alteration of a figure and without a single negative vote, the general appropriation bill for 1900, carrying a total of $3,957,133, passed the house.

The bill did not go through, however, without objection. Mr. Smith of Delaware offered an amendment to strike out the appropriation of $3,000 for maintaining the state pheasantry, but the amendment was voted down.

Mr. Garrison moved to strike out the $1,000 item for the law librarian of the supreme court, for cataloging, but the amendment was objected to on the ground that it would be necessary, when the supreme court moves into the annex, to make up a new catalogue. Mr. Garrison then withdrew his amendment. In support of his amendment Mr. Garrison said he had understood that there has been no cataloging since 1894, when a complete new catalogue was made, except to bring the catalogue down to date, yet the annual appropriation of $1,000 for this purpose had gone on just the same.

One provision of the appropriation bill was attacked by Mr. DeRan. It was an innocent phrase, which provided that the act passed April 1, 1883, for the collection of war claims against the general government "shall also apply to collections made on account of expenditures in the recent war with Spain." Colonel Tolford has had the job of collecting war claims.

Although the act of 1883 applied to war claims for the rebellion Colonel Tolford has gone ahead to collect claims arising out of the war with Spain, until he has recovered about $67,000 due the state. Governor Bushnell allowed Colonel Tolford about $3,750 as commission for Spanish war claims collected up to January, 1900. The provision in the appropriation is statutory legislation to give Colonel Tolford a percentage on these collections in addition to his regular salary notwithstanding the collections he has made thus far have been obtained during the performance of his services, for which he receives an annual compensation of $1,500. However, Mr. DeRan's amendment was defeated.

Mr. Gear's bill to fix the annual salaries of officials in certain counties passed by a vote of 58 yeas to 3 nays.

The house passed the bill to require assessors to take a census of all soldiers, with their postoffice addresses, to be reported to county auditor, and by him to be certified to the adjutant general.

The Price bill to give village councils authority to license vehicles was defeated, 43 yeas, 32 nays.

Senator Howard's bill to increase allowance for burial of indigent soldiers from $35 to $50 was defeated, 25 yeas, 46 nays. It was jumped upon as an act in the interest of the undertakers, and not of the old soldiers.

Mr. Metzger's bill to sell a canal basin in Massillon that has been abandoned was passed.

The bill for the election of state board of decennial appraisers from each congressional district, instead of each senatorial district, was passed.

SNATCHED THE MONEY.

Bold Robbers Turn a Successful Trick in City of Paris.

Paris, March 20.—An audacious robbery of 400,000 francs was committed from the Northern railroad. The company, which three times a week deposits large sums with the Bank of France, sent 630,000 francs, of which 400,000 francs was in small bills. This was placed in a satchel, and the money was conveyed from the station to the bank in a cart, which was in charge of two clerks. Before they started, one of the clerks placed the satchel beside the coachman. Two men then approached and engaged the attention of the clerk and coachman, while a third picked up the satchel and bolted with it. The loss was not noticed until it was too late to apprehend the robbers.

In Favor of Daly.

London, March 20.—Justice Kekewich delivered judgment in the suit of Daly versus Edwards, giving the plaintiff possession of Daly's theater. The judge held that Mr. Daly never parted with any part of the theater, nor with his interest therein, as was alleged. The suit was the outcome of a dispute over the lease of the theater by the late Augustin Daly, of which Mr. Edwards is the owner. The latter took possession of the building and placed a guard at the doors in order to prevent the entrance of any of Mr. Daly's employees.

Sharkey Did Not Appear.

New York, March 20.—Bob Fitzsimmons appeared at the Delevan House with his forfeit of $5,000. After waiting half an hour and Sharkey not appearing, Fitz said he declared the fight with Sharkey off. Martin Julian, representing the Tuckahoe club, was present with a certified check for $5,000, offering 67 per cent of the gross receipts for the fight. Fitz said to Julian that he would accept his offer and fight any man Julian would select. Julian asked Fitz to name a man. Fitz named "Kid" McCoy.

Trial of Viola Horlocker.

Hastings, Neb., March 20.—The court room was crowded when the trial of Viola Horlocker, on the charge of attempting to poison Mrs. Morey, was resumed. The only women present were Miss Horlocker and her sister. The accused removed her veil on entering the court room, and appeared the most unconcerned of all the spectators of the proceedings. The regular panel of jurors was exhausted and the sheriff was sent out to summon a special venire. Court adjourned.

Bishop Hirst Denies It.

Philadelphia, March 20.—Bishop Hirst, who presided over the New Jersey Methodist Episcopal conference at Millville, denied the published statement that he had announced to the conference that President McKinley had accepted the chair of international law in the American university at Washington. The bishop expressed his regret that he was misquoted, and directed his secretary to telegraph a denial to the president.

Dewey at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., March 20.—Inclement weather threatened for a time to interfere seriously with the entertainment of Admiral and Mrs. Dewey. Rain fell several hours and the morning drive had to be dispensed with. At noon, however, the sun came out and the admiral, with a committee of citizens, boarded the revenue cutter Hamilton for a trip down the river.

Victims of Gas.

Marion, Ind., March 20.—The home of Henry Elstroth was completely destroyed by an explosion of natural gas. Mr. and Mrs. Elstroth, their son, 14, and Samuel D. Payne, were injured. The boy and Payne will probably die. The family was asleep when the explosion occurred.

A Double Tragedy.

Manitowish, Wis., March 20.—Frank Shadd and wife were found dead at their home, 18 miles from here, with bullet holes in both bodies. The supposition is that Shadd killed his wife and committed suicide because of domestic troubles.

Information About Erection of Foreign Fortifications.

SULZER'S RESOLUTION IS TABLED.

The New York Statesman Delivers a Scathing Speech in the House on Administration's Alleged Pro-English Course.

Washington, March 20.—When the house met Mr. Hull (Ia.), chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported back from that committee the resolution introduced by Mr. Sulzer (N. Y.) about fortifications that Great Britain is erecting along the northern frontier of the United States, especially at Puget Sound, contiguous to the state of Washington and the district of Alaska. The committee recommended that it lie upon the table. The resolution had been referred to the war department, Mr. Hull said, and came back with the following infirmities: "The information the department possesses on this and like cases has always been held as confidential, and for good and sufficient reasons has not been made public. It is remarked, however, that Great Britain, so far as the department is informed, is in no instance erecting fortifications trespassing on our rights."

Mr. Sulzer (N. Y.) took the floor and delivered a scathing denunciation of the administration's alleged pro-English course; charging that it did nothing without the consent of Downing street; that the recent action of Secretary Hay was taken upon the request of Lord Salisbury and defeated a concert action of the European powers to intervene in South Africa, and charging generally that the English were erecting fortifications along the Canadian border that menaced the peace and welfare of this country.

The motion to lay the resolution on the table was carried, 94 to 83. On demand of Mr. Sulzer the yeas and nays were ordered. The resolution was laid on the table, 110 to 97.

For a National Military Park.

Washington, March 20.—Representative Hay of Virginia filed the report of the house committee on military affairs on the bill establishing a national battlefield memorial park of 6,000 acres on the sites of the battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, the Wilderness and Spotsylvania Courthouse. The report states that more men were here engaged than in any battle in the world's history, aggregating at least 500,000, with losses in killed and wounded on both sides amounting to 129,838. The entrenchments over the entire field are said to be in a remarkable state of preservation. At Fredericksburg also is the home of the mother of Washington, still intact, and a monument erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Here, too, Captain Smith anchored his little bark and fought the Indians in 1608, and within sight of the city were born Washington, Monroe, Jefferson, Madison, the Lees of both the revolution and the civil wars, and Zachary Taylor. The report adds that in Virginia the great war began and ended, and not an acre of this soil, where more men fell than on all the other battlefields of the war, has yet been dedicated as a national park.

Pleading For Debates.

Washington, March 20.—The ways and means committee held a special session to hear ex-Postmaster General Don M. Dickinson in support of the bill allowing the recovery of rebates, aggregating about $5,000,000, on alcohol used in the arts and manufactures. The Wilson tariff bill allowed a rebate of the revenue tax on this article on the issuance of regulations by the secretary of the treasury. But as the then secretary of the treasury, Mr. Carlisle, did not issue the regulations, the courts have held against allowing the rebate. The purpose of the bill is to do away with the want of regulations as a bar to the rebate. Mr. Dickinson said it was the manifest purpose of congress to grant the rebate as an encouragement to the trade in this country as against that in Europe, where alcohol was extensively employed in manufactures, and he maintained that this purpose should not be overcome by the inaction of an executive official.

To Seat Scott.

Washington, March 20.—When the senate convened Mr. McComas (Md.), representing a majority of the committee on privileges and elections, presented a report and resolution, declaring Mr. Scott (W. Va.) to be entitled to his seat in the senate. The resolution was placed on the calendar. Mr. McComas stated that Mr. Pettus (Ala.) would present a minority report.

Fair to-night; Thursday fair; warmer in west portions of State.

It's an awful outrage, of course, to keep men suspected of a foul crime imprisoned a few days. The anti-Goebel papers talk that way.

WHEN Republican journals were publishing suggestions of the shooting of Governor Goebel, wonder if they had Jack Chinn in mind as the one to compass "so desirable an end?"

COLONEL BRECKINRIDGE, who is to assist in defending the men charged with Goebel's assassination, is spending a good deal of his time arguing the case through the columns of the Lexington Herald.

FOLLOWING the election last fall some of the Republican papers published a suggestion that Goebel ought to be shot and that Taylor ought then to pardon the assassin. Mr. Taylor, it appears, has acted on this suggestion, but his pardons will hardly count in the present case.

THE Lexington Herald raves a great deal these days against the efforts of the authorities to ferret out the assassins of Goebel. Probably it would just suit the editor of that paper if the prosecution would drop the case entirely. Does the Herald really want to see the men guilty of this foul crime punished?

INDIANA'S young Republican Senator is willing to grant the Porto Ricans free trade, but with the understanding that they are to enjoy no rights under our Constitution. If the island belongs to us and the people are classed as residents of this country, why shouldn't they enjoy all the privileges the Constitution grants?

WILL RECEIVE NO PAY.

Auditor Coulter Says the Claims of Mr. Taylor's Soldiers Will Not be Recognized by Law.

[Courier-Journal.]

Those soldiers who have been on guard in Capitol square at Frankfort and who have been obeying the orders of Mr. Taylor since Gov. Goebel was inducted into office, will receive no pay. This was the decision of Auditor Coulter, who so notified a number of claim-shavers who visited him at Frankfort to learn what would be done about paying the men now on duty. This will be unwelcome news to the soldiers, who have been standing guard for a month or more subsisting largely on promises of pay.

Auditor Coulter says a large number of claim agents have been mingling with the soldiers for some weeks past with a view of buying up their claims at a big discount.

A number of them went to him and asked him if those claims would ever be paid. Mr. Coulter told them that all the military expenses incurred by Mr. Taylor were illegal and all such claims presented to the State Auditor must be ignored. He further said the military has no right in Frankfort. One of the first officials acts of Gov. Goebel was to issue a proclamation dispersing the militia and sending it home. After Gov. Beckham was inducted into office, he repeated the proclamation. Gov. Beckham appointed General John B. Castleman Adjutant General of the State and Mr. Collier, who had been Mr. Taylor's Adjutant General, was so notified. As a consequence of these acts, nothing done by Mr. Taylor or Mr. Collier since Mr. Goebel was made Governor can be recognized as legal.

ASHLAND GETS IT!

Republican Congressional Convention Will Be Held May 2nd—Mass Meetings in Counties April 28th.

The Republican convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in this district will be held May 2nd at Ashland. This was decided Tuesday by the Executive Committee at the meeting at St. Charles Hotel. Cynthia wanted it, but lost out.

Delegates will be chosen from the various counties by mass meetings to be held Saturday, April 28th.

According to some of Judge Pugh's close friends, he already has the nomination won if he wants it.

THE marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lovelace Wells to Mr. Benjamin F. Cole takes place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Wells, of Murphysville.

STARTLING STORY.

Goebel's Murderers Planned First to Asphyxiate Him.

Such the Assertion Now Published—The Plan Could Not Be Carried Out. Shot With Steel Bullet.

[Courier-Journal.]

The ingenuity of fiends could hardly conceive more diabolical crimes than those which witnesses are confessing to those in charge of the prosecution of the Goebel murder case. Each day is said to bring more light on the mystery.

A confession is said to have been made by two witnesses, who say they were at one of the conferences held to devise ways and means of murdering Goebel. The first plan was to secure an entrance into Gov. Goebel's room at night through the bathroom door, turn on the gas and asphyxiate him. A watch was to be kept, and if he awoke a match was to be thrown inside and cause an explosion, which would bring the desired result. The asphyxiation plan was preferred, because it would allow the Republican party to escape the responsibility. No one would know but that death was the result of an accident, it was thought. According to the confessions, the plan was abandoned after it was found that an entrance to the room could not be secured because of the continual passage of bell boys and belated legislators through the halls of the Capital Hotel.

Shortly before Gov. Goebel was shot, and after the arrival of the mountaineers, Auditor Gus C. Coulter, Mr. Harry G. Tandy and several other persons who were passing along the second floor hall at 1 o'clock in the morning, going from a political conference, discovered a tall mountaineer in an alcove near Gov. Goebel's door. Seeing the men approach, he sought to hide further by stepping quickly into the ladies' toilet room opposite. He closed the door, leaving a small crack, through which they saw him standing close against the wall and behind the door with his right hand on his hip pocket.

Finding it necessary to abandon the asphyxiation plan, the conspirators decided to start a "rough house" in the hall of the House of Representatives during the joint session to pass upon the governorship contest, and then kill Goebel and several members of the Legislature. Fearing that this might cause too great a loss of life, as well as endanger the lives of many Republican members, this plan was abandoned, and the ambush scheme to assassinate Goebel was devised.

Gov. Goebel was killed with a steel bullet, which is now in the possession of the prosecuting officers at Frankfort. It does not bear a mark from its passage through Mr. Goebel's body and into the tree where it was found.

About ten days ago the block of wood taken from the tree in line with where Gov. Goebel was shot and the Secretary of State's office, was opened in the presence of several witnesses, among them being Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin, who is in charge of the murder case. The block of wood was split, but at first nothing was seen. A knife blade was thrust into a crack and it struck a hard substance, which proved to be a steel bullet. There was not a scratch upon it.

The autopsy held by the physicians showed that the bullet had passed through one of Gov. Goebel's ribs, and the edges of the hole through the bone were bent inward, proving conclusively, even if there was not other positive evidence, that Gov. Goebel was shot from the front and not from the back. A scientific examination of the bone developed exactly the same sort of evidence to show he was shot from the front as was found in the bent edges of the Maine's hull to prove that the great battleship was blown up by some submarine agency. The proof that Gov. Goebel was shot from the front is so conclusive that the prosecutors have ceased paying any attention to the silly stories concocted by people who apparently are trying to prevent the conviction of the guilty men.

Steel bullets are not commonly used, and several detectives have been working on this as a clue, with a view of discovering where the bullet came from. It was fired with such force that it was not deflected a particle in its passage through Gov. Goebel's body. The chart which has been made by a Frankfort surveyor shows to a mathematical nicety that the steel bullet came from the window of the Secretary of State's office. The height of the wound on Governor Goebel's body, the course which it took and the fall from point of entrance to exit all combine to prove the theory which was soon advanced—that the shot came from Powers' office window.

It is learned that "Tallow Dick" Combs, of Beattyville, is the negro who is suspected of having fired the fatal shot and that he is so closely shadowed that the instant he attempts to leave the country he will be arrested. Information is to the effect that his partner was "Black Hock," or Hockersmith, a Winchester negro.

Hockersmith and Combs, it is learned, were taken to Frankfort shortly before Goebel was killed, and left soon after the assassination. Prior to the killing they were seen each morning in front of a saloon near the corner of Broadway and Lewis streets, where Mr. Goebel passed en route to and from the State house. After the killing these men never left the State house grounds until they disappeared entirely. The evidence against them is said to be strong.

When Auditor's Clerk W. H. Culton was searched at the Louisville jail the following were among the receipts found on his person:

Jan. 20.—Rec'd of John Perkins $3 for board for Mr. Hockersmith, Mason and Combs. [and S.—'crased.] BETTIE PITTMAN.

Jan. 31.—Rec'd $10 from Mr. Hocker for board. EDWARD PITTMAN.

Some Spring Silk Suggestions!

Firstly, we would suggest that you inspect our immense and choice stock of new Spring Silks before you make your purchases. We use no words to induce you to buy, the Silks must speak for themselves. Their prettiness and exclusiveness of designs, their goodness in quality and lowness in price will be eloquent demonstrations of their worthiness even to the poorest silk judges.

Secondly, we do not know whether to suggest plain taffetas or fancy silk; they are all so pretty and stylish. We can merely mention prices; ask you to compare and make your choice. Plain Taffetas in all colors at 49c and 89c. In black also at $1 and $1.35. Our stock of fancy Silks was never so large or select. They come in the new insertion and corded effects. Prices 79c, 89c, $1, $1.39, $1.50, most of these are in waist patterns only. New Foulards with the new sheen finish worth $1.25, our price 89c. yard. The very latest fad is the silk handkerchief waist. We have 'em at $3.50 the pattern. Your inspection cordially invited.

Numerous Needful Novelties!

The many little novelties that go to make the stylish costume complete are well represented here. The new Pulley Belts 25c. to 98c. each. Pulley Belt Buckles 25c. A SUDDEN SUMMONS.

Death of the Venerable Timothy Desmond at an Early Hour This Morning. Funeral Friday.

The venerable Mr. Timothy Desmond died suddenly at 7:10 o'clock this morning at his home on the Lexington pike. He had been ill about three weeks from a complication of diseases, but was not regarded as in any immediate danger. About 7 o'clock this morning he was suddenly taken with a fainting spell. He rallied somewhat from this, but shortly afterwards was again stricken, dying in a few minutes.

Mr. Desmond was born in County Cork, Ireland, and would have been eighty years old April 22nd. He had resided in this city and vicinity for fifty-three years, and enjoyed the respect and esteem of the community. In 1819 he married Miss Katherine McAuliffe of this city, and a year ago in January the venerable couple had the pleasure of celebrating their golden wedding. His wife survives. Eleven children were born to them; and of these seven survive—Timothy, Jr., James, Dennis and Mrs. W. A. Jobst of this city, Mrs. Katherine O'Hearn, of Richmond, Ky., Charles, of Louisville, and Mrs. Nora Peters, of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial at Washington.

is very careful about her churn. She sends it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach churn is "sour" it sours all which is put into it? The evil of a bad stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting and corrupting element. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant and no narcotic.

The members of St. Patrick's Benevolent Society are requested to meet this (Wednesday) afternoon at 7:30 o'clock to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late Brother Timothy Desmond.

TIMOTHY McAULIFFE, Pres.

Home Missions.

In a company of gentlemen the other day, met for the purpose of discussing the betterment of the human family, necessarily the subject of missions came up. The home mission side was thoroughly discussed. Bankers, merchants and doctors were in the crowd. Attracted by the gathering a little boy crept in, emaciated in feature, miserably clad for the March winds and otherwise betokening by his appearance a miserable existence in mind, body and spirit. All arguments heretofore advanced by the gentlemen assembled along theoretical lines were now dismissed and the most humane of the crowd, picking up the urchin, exclaimed: "Gentlemen, behold the need of practical work along missionary lines, and this child is our next door neighbor." The young men and women of Maysville are the crowd of gentlemen, the urchin is the mission school in West End, and the example to follow is to buy a ticket for the Society Minstrels Wednesday, March 28th, and thus assist in educating, clothing and Christianizing this benighted portion of our city.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Medical Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at J. Jas.
